PIEDMONT

A miracle at the foot of the Alps

It is not easy to let coexist in only one territory the splendor of the Savoia Reign and the Fiat Factory, Cesare Pavese's poems and the passion for the Juventus Club, the best wines and...the best chocolates of Italy.

This little miracle happened each day in Piedmont Region, at the foot of the Italian Alps.

It is not strange to speak about miracles in this territory, whose capital, Turin, hosts the sheet of Christ's body, used after his death on the cross.
